Chateau Vieux Moulin, Vox Dei Corbieres, France

Chateau Vieux Moulin is a domain 100% certified organic. The vineyards are located in Montbrun des Corbieres, on a hot and dry terroir. The domain is more than 2 century old and is now run by Alexandre They who took over the estate in 1998 with his wife Laurence.

Alexandre is a young and visonary winemaker who distinguished himslef in the region by making authentic Corbieres wines. Alexandre and his wife beleive in growing their vineyards under the best environmental practices, preserving high level of biodyversity and preserving the natural resources. The respect of nature's systems and cycles is key in making terroir driven wines.

All wines are fermented with native yeast and made with minimal intervention.

Vox Dei shows great concentration of dark fruits, spices, and garrigue aromas.

On the label:
"Arriving to our land in 1997, we were blessed to have the support of people used to work this vineyard for many years. those people helped us and guided us through the winemaking process using their passion and know-how. for us those voices became one, becoming our spiritual guide. this wine is a tribute to those men who speak the same language: the language of wine."
